BLC CHILDREN'S EMERGENCY MEDICAL FUND:

BLC'S MEDICAL FUND IS AN ANSWER TO PRAYER FOR MANY FILIPINOS:
Worldwide, more than 100 million primary-age school children remain out of school, almost 60 percent of them girls.
"This situation endures despite overwhelming evidence that teaching children how to read, write and count can boost economic growth, arrest the spread of AIDS and break the cycle of poverty."

International BLC Sponsorships (801-BLC)

The BLC (Barner Learning Center) International Student Sponsorship Program is an opportunity for Filipino children who otherwise might not be able to afford a quality Christian education to obtain schooling at no cost to their families through the "adoption" of their financial schooling obligations by international supporters. For support of those at ages 2 through 15, the fee is $20 (P1000) per month.

Each Sponsorship covers the following: tuition, enrollment, books, uniform, registration, dental checkup, insurance, medical checkup, ID card/jacket, instructional materials, PTA & library & campus fees, school publications, graduation fee & gown, yearbook, field trip transportation costs, boy/girl scout membership & uniforms, gym fee, and basic school supplies (notebooks, pencils, etc.).

PLEASE PRAY:

- THAT OUR FINANCES WILL RECOUP QUICKLY NOW THAT WE HAVE COMPLETED OUR 2ND FLOOR BLC CONSTRUCTION.

STAFF NOTEBOOK: Teacher Melben, Computer
 "I installed the printer driver on the 8 additional computers hooked up to the new LAN network server in our computer lab. Also typed up the schedules for Dr. Ayoc's 1-on-1 Men's Accountability Partnership with the male staff. Last week I taught the 5th and 6th grade class since the teachers were reshuffled while Teacher Joy was absent. I also emailed our textbook order to Manila."

A LITTLE CHILD SHALL LEAD THEM
"Jesus made my life a home run!"

Our little 7 yr old boy PJ was a star! Since it was prayer meeting night, I was at the church while Elvie and Abby brought PJ to Faith Academy for his 2- evening musical. PJ was the shortest little guy there, but had a main part. Elvie said that while many of the others were reading their lines (one man even had his own script taped to the inside of a prop), PJ's lines were all memorized.

At home after the musical, while PJ was in the other room bathing, Elvie and I shared Bible verses with each other to hear God's plan on the present difficulty with BLC's troublesome neighbor.

"I wish I was like you and could just brush off her nasty comments. But it really digs right into my heart!"

In Elvie's hand was a subpoena for us to meet with the woman's lawyer about why we are making noise on Wednesdays and Sundays by singing praises during our Christian worship services.

As I read from Psalm 103, "Praise the Lord, O my soul..." suddenly a 7-yr old voice came from the bathroom..."and forget not all his benefits..." and PJ recited from memory the whole chapter! We thanked God for His love.

TRAINING LITTLE LIVES FOR THE KING

"...and pray for those you mistreat!"

With the church and school growing exponentially with 50-100 more each year, we are not able to train the new believers fast enough to fill in the teaching slots.

Therefore the pastoral church-planting staff takes turns, alternating in preaching for the adults and teaching children's church. One hundred children watched as I taught them Bible verses this Sunday.

On the blackboard, I had taped Luke 6:27,28. The children were divided into two teams, the "Crosses" and the "Crowns". Since we ran out of chairs, half of them sat on the floor.

Well, maybe sitting is a misnomer, for they were so excited that they kept edging closer and closer to me in the front. Ever have one hundred children moving en masse like a slow moving wave toward you? It is quite the experience!

Crosses were first. To be fair to his classmates, I had our 7 yr old PJ be the judge. He is so very good at Bible verses, that he can memorize them in two minutes. Correctly, they chose the first phrase, "LOVE YOUR ENEMIES..."

Progressively, we made our way through the verses, right up until the last line. Danrice, a muscular little guy, transposed the last two words of "PRAY FOR THOSE WHO MISTREAT YOU," and in essence, totally changed the meaning. "PRAY FOR THOSE YOU MISTREAT!"

A VERY, VERY WELCOME NOTE:

Dear Paul,

Glad to learn that you are feeling better.

[I had a week of nauseating Vertigo]

Regarding the sewing machine "need" --

Today while I was talking with my friend, she mentioned that she wanted to get rid of a sewing machine!!! I know you are getting one from me and one from someone else -- but I thought maybe you could use a 3rd one also -- so tonight she brought hers to my home, and Bill will pack hers also ----- so you will be getting 2 from my address, but the Kenmore one is from Jessie!!! They should both get into the mail early next week (Bill is coming over on Friday, and will probably be able to wrap both then).

Again, very best wishes -- and many prayers.
Beryl
